

October 23, 2008
Pacific Northwest Program
California Film Extruders and Converters Association

Learn what is happening in the Pacific Northwest and Canadian markets including how the City of Toronto plans to raise taxes in certain packages used, the impact of the recent plastic ban efforts in all California supermarkets and retail stores, and an overview of what the industry experts predict as projected growth within our industry (including the Pacific Northwest region).

Guest Speakers:

Cathy Cirko

Vice President, Environment & Health, Canadian Plastics Industry Association
Cathy is responsible for the strategic direction and operational aspects of the association's Environment and Health initiatives.

Laurie J. Hansen

Strategic Government Communications & Lobbyist for CFECA
Laurie is an independent lobbyist and public affairs consultant specializing in the development and execution of advocacy strategies at the state and local government levels.

Jim Cairns

Environmental Plastics Advisory Services
EPAS was formed to provide 'pragmatic links' between Industry, Governments and Advocacy to alleviate and minimize premature polarization that may often arise over environmental issues.
